

I am absolutely against the use of cell phones on commercial flights. Most people with cell phones are so inconsiderate to other people around them. They invade our privacy. I fear in an enclosed space such as an aircraft it will inspire a feud if not today very definitely in the near future.